He complimented the Elected Officials and Department Heads for the great job they are doing in serving the public. Whether that means their office is open, or open by appointment, the Board commended everyone for doing such a great job.

Chairperson Madlom allowed each department head (or elected official) to state what they are doing differently within their office. A brief discussion was held regarding things the offices are dealing with and upcoming deadlines such as the second half property tax payment deadline on Tuesday, March 31, 2020.

There being no actions taken by the Board, the meeting was adjourned at 9:35 am.
